

EUROPE.

BY THE CABLE TO OCTOBER 8.

IMPORTANT FROM ITALY.

Papal Victories Over the Garibaldian Invaders.

Rome Tranquil and the Peasantry Aiding the Pope.

Garibaldi in Denunciation of the Italian Premier.

Napoleon's Plan for the Extinction of the Temporal Power.

The Turks and Montenegrins in Saragunary Conflict.

GREAT BRITAIN ALARMED BY THE FENIANS.

THE REVOLUTION.

Manifesto of Garibaldi Against the Premier of Italy—Victories of the Papal Troops over the Invaders—Riot and Disorder by the Insurgents—Rome Tranquil.

[From the Evening Telegram of yesterday.]

LONDON, Oct. 8, 1897.

General Garibaldi, from his prison home on the island of Caprera, has issued a second proclamation, couched in very violent words, against the Cabinet policy and personal action of Senator Rattazzi, the Premier of Italy.

The General charges Rattazzi with being an enemy of Italian unity, and also of being, to some extent, a tool of the Church party and Napoleon.

He urges the revolutionary force to go on and capture Rome.

The insurgents in the Pontifical provinces of Viterbo are daily increasing in numbers.

The Papal troops stationed in the territory of Viterbo, and reinforced by detachments from Rome, have routed the insurgents and invading Garibaldians at Baginara and in small fights which have taken place at other points.

Nothing of a really serious character has yet occurred in the Pontifical territory. The fighting is confined to the unsettled operations of a few bands of Garibaldians. The insurgents lack leaders, and act more like bandits than educated and high intentioned Italian patriots.

They rush on and capture quiet and peaceful villages, levy contributions on the inhabitants and commit outrages of different degrees of crime.

When the revolutionists retreat from the towns the Roman peasants restore the Papal flag with demonstrations of gladness and joy.

Despatches of the special correspondent of the New York Herald in Rome, forwarded to this city at the latest moment, ridicule the reports of the existence of disaffection against the civil government of the Pope. The correspondent declares that the Eternal City remains quiet, and its inhabitants unexcited by the events transpiring outside.

The London Times of this day's issue has an editorial which says that the "Roman question" difficulty is nearly at an end.

There are rumors current here to the effect that the rulers and Cabinets of Italy and France have come to an understanding on the subject of Rome; also that Italy and the Prussian Cabinet have had a correspondence on the state of affairs, and that Pope Pius the Ninth is engaged in a negotiation with Austria as to the situation in future.

All this is, however, the mere conjecture of politicians or interested or prejudiced parties or persons.

The markets, financial and commercial, in London and Paris, suffer from these rumors, as their circulation conduces to a state of doubt and uncertainty in the public mind.

There is only a small probability of a real or national war arising out of the Italo-Roman affair, unless it may be that Garibaldi makes his escape from Caprera, and continues his agitation against and his assaults on the Papacy and the September Convention.

THE PRESS DESPATCHES.

THE ITALIAN REVOLUTION.

Claim of Victory by the Papal Troops.

Florence, Oct. 8, 1897.

The officers of the Papal troops engaged at Baginara claim that they gained the victory in that battle.

They claim that seventy of the enemy were wounded and one hundred and ten made prisoners.

THE REVOLUTIONISTS MARCHING ON ROME.

Florence, Oct. 8, 1897.

The volunteers of Garibaldi are marching upon Rome from every direction.

The Florence press urges the government to anticipate them and occupy the city with the national troops.

THE TEMPORAL POWER.

Imperial Council at Biarritz—Napoleon's Plan of Rule in Rome.

Biarritz, Oct. 8, 1897.

The Marquis de Montebello, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, and the Chevalier de Nigra, the Italian Ambassador, arrived here just before the troubles broke out in Italy, and have since been in constant consultation with the Emperor.

It is reported that the following plan for the Roman question has been agreed upon:—Italy is to take possession of the Roman Province; but Pope Pius IX. is to remain in Rome and retain the government of the city until his death, when the temporal power of the Pope will cease.

GARIBALDI.

His Pronouncements Against Rattazzi.

Florence, Oct. 8, 1897.

Garibaldi has issued an address denouncing Rattazzi and urging his followers to carry on the war for the possession of Rome.

American Official Interference in His Behalf.

A report gained currency in Florence that the American Minister, Hon. George P. Marsh, had demanded the release of General Garibaldi on the ground that he was a citizen of the United States. This is denied; but it is true that Mr. Marsh had asked the Italian government to show clemency to the distinguished prisoner.

THE CONCORDAT.

Austria to Maintain the Relations with Rome.

Vienne, Oct. 8, 1897.

The Emperor Francis Joseph has concluded to make no change in the existing Concordat, and the negotiations with Rome for the purpose of making a new Concordat have been abandoned.

FRANCE.

Army Changes—Expected Reforms.

Paris, Oct. 8, 1897.

Orders have been issued for the enlargement of the cadres of the French army; but the effective force will not be increased.

The Intimation is officially brought out that the Emperor contemplates many liberal reforms in the government.

GERMAN CONSOLIDATION.

The King of Prussia in South Germany.

Augsburg, Oct. 8, 1897.

His Majesty King William of Prussia arrived in this city to-day through South Germany.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Revolution in Montenegro and Fierce Battle with the Turks.

London, Oct. 8, 1897.

Despatches from the East report that a sanguinary conflict had taken place on the Turkish frontier between the Montenegrins and the Turks.

THE FENIANS.

Continued Alarm and Excitement in Great Britain—An Outbreak Dreaded at Berwick.

London, Oct. 8, 1897.

The rumors which are constantly arising with regard to the designs of the Fenians cause much anxiety in England and Ireland.

All prisoners' names are doubly guarded by armed policemen to prevent any attempt at rescue.

Threatening indications lead the authorities to apprehend some disorder at Berwick, and proper precautions are being taken.

ENGLAND.

The Peabody Statue Commission.

London, Oct. 8, 1897.

The commission for the statue of Mr. George Peabody, which is to be erected in this city, has been given to W. W. Story, the American sculptor.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The London Money Market.—London, Oct. 8.

Consolidated, 94½ for money. United States bonds, 71½.

London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—At this hour American securities are quiet as follows:—Erie, 43½; Atlantic and Great Western, 22½; bonds, 71½; Illinois Central, 77½.

The Continental Bourse.—Frankfurt, Oct. 8.—Noon.—United States bonds are quoted at 74½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

The London Bourse.—London, Oct. 8.—2 P. M.—The market is quiet and steady, with a probable day's market 10,000 shares. Middle Eastern, 84½; Middle Eastern, 84½.

Paris, three vessels filled with troops were all ready to leave Toulon.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists, with all shades of the opposition, with Satan himself, it need be, for the purpose of defeating the government, and they would have succeeded undoubtedly in returning a large majority who, although differing widely as to policy, would be united in their opposition to the Emperor.

The Emperor is by no means ready to cut himself loose from the clerical party. Had he not prepared this expedition, had Garibaldi succeeded in his project, the whole church party of France would have pointed their fingers in pious horror at his Majesty, and saying "thou art the man," would have laid all the blame at his door. The result would have been that at the next general election, the church party would have leagued themselves with the republicans and the Orleansists